Re: Letter of Recommendation for Brandon Washington

I am pleased to recommend Brandon Washington for employment as he seeks to expand his expertise in the retail market. Brandon is a committed worker with great leadership and communications skills. He is able to work with, influence and lead others with confidence, commitment and concern.

Brandon has served in a leadership role with the Literary Legends Toastmasters Club, part of the renowned Toastmasters International nonprofit organization. Brandon is a good listener, a quick learner and an effective participator. He keeps his commitments and is a reliable, detailed and dedicated part of our Toastmasters Club. As Vice President of Public Relations and Marketing, Brandon provides monthly newsletters, leads Toastmasters meetings and expands Literary Legends visibility within our community.

I have observed Brandon's growth in leadership, confidence and public speaking as he continues to implement the skills developed in Toastmasters. It is evident that he is making a personal investment in his professional development and has transferred many of his Toastmasters learnings and achievements to his daily employment environment.

Again, I strongly recommend Brandon Washington for leadership level employment, especially within the retail arena.

Sincerely,

In regards to: Brandon Washington

Brandon Washington worked as a teenage volunteer for the Summer Basketball program at the Granger Recreation Center. He communicated well with our staff and all the youth that attended the program. He was persistent in keeping accurate scores. When problems came up he always had the right answers from the game statistics sheets.

As a young man he had a good attitude when speaking with the entire citizenship that frequented the recreation center.

I would like to recommend Brandon Washington to any company that is looking for a good team player.

Sincerely,
Roy Foster
